

Kimono Teddy Bear

This is a high end teddy bear. I went with a thick fur for the body and decorated silk bought from a recent trip to Tokyo. The hairpeice is handmade with only ribbon squares and glue, and took 6 hours to craft. The entire bear took over 50 hours.

Hissterical

This is a line of adorable vinyl cat girls. They have personalities like the breeds they're modeled after, along with their cute tails and ears. Sarah the Siamese was 3D printed.

Restaurant King

In a world where everything revolves around food, 3 chefs on a little street rise to the tyranny of Sconeia, a man taking over the city using dastardly means of forcing little foodplaces down in the city rankings, and subsequently forcing his up. It's up to Masuyo, Angie, and Thorella to team up and take him down with the help of their little magical friend.

This started with different characters, but through critiques and revision, the characters have become what they are now.
